East Texas Communities Foundation

SCHOLARSHIP HANDBOOK

Welcome!

What is your dream for your future? Do you wish to pursue a degree in the medical or business field? Are you a gifted athlete, talented artist or active community volunteer? No matter what your talents, abilities and passions are, East Texas Communities Foundation wants to help you pursue your higher education dreams.

The ETCF Scholarship Directory provides valuable scholarship information to students pursuing education beyond high school. Many of the scholarships listed in this guide are for high school seniors. There are also several opportunities for students already enrolled in college and non-traditional students.

There are literally thousands of local and national scholarships available to students today. Featured on the pages of this guide are scholarships available specifically to East Texas students. Students are encouraged to apply for as many scholarships as they qualify for. Multiple scholarships can be awarded to a single student resulting in a substantial cumulative amount. All scholarship dollars that are awarded aid in off-setting tuition expenses.

We hope this guide is a helpful resource as you consider the numerous scholarship opportunities available to you. Please feel free to contact our ETCF Program Officers and staff if you have a question about our online application process or eligibility requirements. Our staff can also assist you with general scholarship questions and help demystify the financial aid process.

Congratulations students! An exciting year awaits you.

Our Mission

Philanthropy builds community and changes lives.

East Texas Communities Foundation supports philanthropy by offering simple ways for donors to achieve their long-term charitable goals.

Scholarship Timetable for High School Seniors

Now is the time to begin searching for scholarships for which you may be eligible – they are out there, but you need to look for them. This guide is a good place to start. And remember – your high school guidance counselor is a valuable resource. Visit with them frequently and check bulletins and listings available at your school. Also check with the financial aid offices of schools to which you are applying. Knowing what sources of aid are available to you may help you determine your school of choice. There are a few important deadlines to make note of concerning ETCF Scholarships:

Prior to Applying

- Request unofficial copies of your transcripts. Transcripts must include your most recent Fall semester grades.
- Take the SAT and/ or ACT test if required by your college or university.
- Obtain the email address of one teacher willing to submit a reference letter on your behalf as part of the application process.
 - ▶ references must be from a teacher that has direct classroom experience with you.
 - ▶ references written by family members/ relatives will not be accepted (even if they are a teacher).
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) www.fafsa.ed.gov. FAFSA is available to complete beginning October 1st. We recommend applying as early as possible.

January 1, 2023

Scholarship applications open to students online at www.ETCF.org on January 1, 2023. A student may apply for every scholarship that they meet the eligibility requirements for. Applicants will complete a universal “common” application but will still need to submit each unique scholarship application. Some applications may have additional requirements.

How To Apply

- Go to www.ETCF.org. Click scholarships and select the available scholarships tab. Click the Let's get started button to create an account to access the online portal. Create your account using a non-issued school email address. We will use this email as the main form of communication about your application.
- Complete & submit the “Scholarship Opportunity Eligibility Questions.” Based on your answers, this will generate a list of eligible scholarship opportunities. These opportunities will appear on your dashboard.
- Complete the “Universal Application” (UA) which will populate to all eligible applications.
Complete instructions can be found online.
- Once the UA is complete, you will need to click on each opportunity to make sure there are no supplemental questions that you need to answer.
- YOU MUST SUBMIT EACH OPPORTUNITY INDIVIDUALLY FOR IT TO BE CONSIDERED.

March 1, 2023

Applications and required supporting documents, including one reference, must be submitted online at www.ETCF.org by March 1, 2023 at 5:00 p.m.

Frequently Asked Questions

About Scholarships & Financial Aid

Q) How do I know if I am eligible for a particular scholarship?

A) Many scholarships have specific eligibility criteria such as attending a certain school, majoring in a particular subject, or participating in a designated extracurricular activity. You must meet all stated criteria to be eligible. Use the simple matching tools found at <https://etcf.org/scholarships/available-scholarships/> to determine which scholarships you are most likely eligible for and to access the applications. Detailed and summary descriptions of each scholarship are also found there.

Q) How do I apply?

A) All applications are required to be completed online. Access the application via the general scholarship matching tools found in the Available Scholarships tab.

Q) May I apply for more than one scholarship?

A) Yes. You must submit an application for each unique scholarship.

Q) Can I receive more than one scholarship?

A) Yes. Each scholarship committee is different and selects the best candidates within the pool of applicants available to them. If you are a strong candidate, it is possible you will be selected for multiple awards.

Q) Which counties are ETCF counties named under the hometown or geographic region eligibility requirement?

A) Anderson, Angelina, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Delta, Franklin, Freestone, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hopkins, Houston, Lamar, Leon, Marion, Morris, Nacogdoches, Panola, Rains, Red River, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Titus, Trinity, Upshur, Van Zandt, Wood.

Q) Which high schools are considered Smith County schools for eligibility requirements

A) Public and private schools located in Arp, Bullard, Chapel Hill, Lindale, Troup, Tyler, Whitehouse, and Winona are Smith County schools. Students residing in Smith County and within the Van ISD and Gladewater ISD boundaries are also eligible.

Q) May homeschool students apply?

A) Homeschool students may apply as private school students, assuming they meet all other eligibility criteria. Be aware that a reference from a teacher with direct classroom experience may be required and references from relatives are not allowed.

Q) Will any browser work with the scholarship application software at www.etcf.org?

A) Google Chrome and FireFox are the recommended browsers. Internet Explorer is not supported.

Q) May I mail my transcript and other requested documents to ETCF?

A) No. The entire application should be submitted electronically. Simply scan the document, save it as a file, and attach that file to the application where requested. If you have multiple transcripts, please save in a single file.

Q) May I attach my resume' or brag sheet as a supporting document?

A) No. Only attach the requested documents. If you have more extracurricular activities or community service than space allows, include those activities most important to you in the space provided. You should be able to copy and paste from a Word document into the application.

Q) Will a screen shot of my ACT or SAT scores be acceptable as an attachment?

A) Yes, but it needs to include your full name as well as your EFC score.

Q) What is the deadline for references?

A) The deadline for the reference is the same for the application. Students will want to request teacher references early in the process as applications CANNOT be submitted until the reference has been received by ETCF.

Q) What is the FAFSA and how do I complete it?

A) The Free Application for Federal Student Aid is used by colleges and universities to determine the amount and type of financial aid awarded to students annually. Complete the free application at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The amount your family is able to pay for school, the Expected Family Contribution or EFC, will be determined and reported to you. The EFC amount is required on all East Texas Communities Foundation need-based scholarship applications. Helpful resources related to filing the FAFSA can be found at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/fafsa> and <https://www.edvisors.com/fafsa/> and <http://www.educationquest.org/>

Q) What if I don't have access to the Internet? Is there another method of filing the FAFSA?

A) While the U.S. Department of Education encourages filing the FAFSA online—due to a lower error rate and faster processing time—a paper version is available by calling (800) 433-3242. You may request up to three forms. In addition, a PDF version of the FAFSA will be available at www.FederalStudentAid.ed.gov. From there you can access the PDF, complete the form by computer or hand, and mail it to the address provided for processing.

Q) When will I know if I have been awarded a scholarship from East Texas Communities Foundation?

A) Recipients will be notified by email and mail in mid-April. Applicants not awarded a scholarship will be notified by e-mail in mid-May.

Q) Will I receive the scholarship check?

A) No. College scholarship payments are mailed directly to the school's financial aid office. Your scholarship check will be made payable to the accredited, educational institution you are attending.

Are You Setting Goals for the Future?

East Texas Communities Foundation supports philanthropy by offering simple ways for donors to achieve their long-term charitable goals by:

- Serving as a flexible and cost-effective vehicle for donors to invest in the community
- Promoting philanthropy in all its forms
- Building permanent endowments for our region's changing issues and opportunities

East Texas Communities Foundation was founded in 1989 by visionary leaders who saw the need for a community foundation to support philanthropy in East Texas. Our success is a testament to the flexibility of our donor services, strong leadership and sound financial management. We welcome the opportunity to help generous East Texans be good stewards and wise givers.
